CupidDuzt's Media Kit

By CupidDuzt

Mission Statement

As CupidDuzt, I cultivate an inclusive digital environment where neurodivergent gamers and cannabis enthusiasts connect authentically. Through engaging Fortnite content, I challenge misconceptions surrounding autism and cannabis use, creating a space where everyone is welcomed and understood. My platform combines entertainment with advocacy, fostering a community that celebrates our differences while uniting through shared gaming experiences.

Partner Alignment

Brands that partner with CupidDuzt benefit from authentic alignment with values of inclusivity, education, and community building. My platform offers a unique opportunity to connect with audiences seeking genuine representation in gaming spaces. Together, we can create meaningful content that resonates with these communities while advancing our shared commitment to advocacy, education, and entertainment that celebrates diversity in all its forms.

Target Audience

My content resonates with a diverse community that includes:

- Gaming enthusiasts seeking inclusive, judgment-free spaces
- Neurodivergent individuals who value authentic representation
- Cannabis wellness advocates interested in educational content
- People drawn to communities that celebrate diversity and authenticity

This engaged audience actively participates in conversations about gaming, neurodiversity, and cannabis wellness, creating a vibrant community built on mutual respect and shared interests.
